Mempersiapkan Tulisan untuk Publikasi di Jurnal Internasional

Deden Rukmana, PhD

Professor of Urban Studies and Planning

Savannah State University

Are you struggling to start your writing?
You are not alone!

Developing Better Writing Habits

- The only one way to become a better writer is through a lot of practices
- Establish a writing schedule and write regularly, i.e. fifteen minutes a day in the morning
- Commit yourself to other(s)
- You will get plenty of writing practice and your work improves
- Overcome procrastination

Types of Academic Articles

- Research article
- Commentary and policy review
- Book review
- Annotated bibliography
- Interviews
- Response article

Publishable Articles

- Approaches new evidence in an old way:
  - Present new evidence to support an existing approach
  - New evidence can result from new experiment, field observation, etc.
- Approaches old evidence in a new way
  - Requires an excellent understanding of existing theories and methodologies
  - Develops a new way of explaining old data
- Pairs old evidence with old approaches in a new way
  - Links evidence and approaches that have not been linked before

Publishable Articles

- Be meticulous about documentation:
  - Missing information in the bibliography
  - Misspelled author names
  - Mismatched publication dates
  - Grammatical errors and awkwardly constructed sentences
  - Awkward word selections
- Cite recent and relevant literature
- Cite multiple sources
- Avoid extensive quotations
- Avoid extensive description of published subject(s) in the literature review section.

Publishable Articles

- Identify your methodology
- Describe your sample and sampling procedure
- Describe your research context
- Describe your variables
- No statistics tutorial
- Keep it simple – word limits
- Putting your article in the journal's style

Finalizing Your Manuscript

- Sharing with professors
- Sharing with colleagues
- Sharing with students
- Proofreading by an experienced English editor

Manuscript Submission

- Writing the cover letter
  - Name the editor
  - Provide the title
  - Include the abstract if requested
  - Mention the journal
- Mention any permissions
- Mention any funding
- Include your full contact information

Types of Journal Decision

- Pure accepted
- Conditionally accepted
- Revise major problems and resubmit
- Rejected

Kemenristekdikti and University of Nottingham Return of Investment in Research and Higher Education: Seminar and Workshops

In the spirit of our National Education Day 2018, Kemenristekdikti, in collaboration with University of Nottingham are hosting a seminar on "Return of Investment in Research and Higher Education: Seminar and Workshops". Participate in the discussion with distinguished professors and researchers from the University of Nottingham about UK's research funding policy, and research impact assessment.

This is the perfect forum for policy-makers, researchers, lecturers, and other higher education stakeholders interested in the approaches taken by the UK government to support research infrastructure. The University of Nottingham is considered one of the most successful institution to achieve both teaching and research excellence in 2018 according to Times Higher Education.

The seminar will be followed by technical workshops on:

1. The Importance of Research Collaboration to Publishing in Top International Journals
2. Geohazards and Earth Processes Monitoring
3. Sustainable Solutions to Global Challenges in the Areas of Food, Water and Resource Security
